

The Josh Award Application Form 2017

Full Name:

Address:

Tel:

Mobile:

Email:

As resident Science Communicator for Manchester Science Festival 2017, the winner will be expected to create a novel project or event that embraces the Festival's vision to be the most bold, creative and ambitious science festival in the UK. The project/event will be supported by Manchester Science Festival and the University of Salford with up to £2500 to cover the costs of the project/event and up to £1000 personal expenses budget to be agreed by Manchester Science Festival and the University of Salford.

1. Please include brief biographical details (including what/where/when/duration) of your science engagement/communication career so far (maximum 300 words).
2. Please tell us about your idea for a project/event during Manchester Science Festival 2017. Please explain how proposal meets the selection criteria below and include a draft timeline a budget for the project/event. (maximum 1,500 words). Please return this document to msf@msimanchester.org.uk by 5pm Monday 22nd May 2017.

Selection criteria

Science Communication (20%) Demonstrate exceptional potential for delivering an innovative and creative science communication experience.
Audiences (20%) Demonstrates an ability to engage families through creative and participatory science engagement.
Impact (20%) Demonstrates a compelling and measurable pathway to impact.
Proposal for project/event meets the selection criteria below (40%) <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Free activity suitable for families with children 5-11 years old</li><li>• Explores a contemporary science topic</li><li>• Playful, hands-on and participatory for whole family</li><li>• High quality production and delivery</li><li>• Takes place at the Museum of Science and Industry on Saturday 28 and Sunday 29 October 2017</li></ul>